

Frane McNeal-Bio

Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses Initiative Advisor at CCP, Significant Business Results Coach, Speaker, Author, Radio & TV Host

Business Growth! When women-owned businesses want to transform their dreams into reality, I deliver ROI through my proven process that doubles their revenue. I help entrepreneurs focus their energy for action, so they achieve significant business results: increase sales, improve cash flow, reduce expenses, increase profitability and improve plans, people, process, performance and profits.

"As a business coach, Frane is brilliant. She has a way of pushing you to strive for your best without actually pushing you. She is able to expertly foster growth, new ways of thinking, and new strategies for your business just by asking the perfectly timed questions".

Frane McNeal, MBA, Significant Business Results Coach, is a 2015 Minority Business Leader, 2014 Small Business Influencer, a 2014 Main Line Today Power Women, and host of Significant Business Results Radio and SignificantTV.

As a breast cancer survivor and stroke survivor, Frane's keynotes motivate entrepreneurs who are "infected with frustration" and "paralyzed by fear", to "focus their energy for action and achieve significant business results". She is the author of "Significant! From Frustrated to FraneTastic; Inspirational Stories for the Entrepreneurial Woman".

Frane is affiliated with premiere entrepreneurial programs: Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Business Initiatives, Tory Burch Foundation Women's Business Initiatives, Tow-Knight Center for Entrepreneurial Journalism, and Kauffman FastTrac.

Frane McNeal has extensive corporate experience in financial services, manufacturing, sales and training. She has worked at PNC Financial Services, Strategic Computer Assistance Inc., Mellon Bank, FMC, and SKB.
